

EASTER NEWSLETTER 2022

FROM CUPE 2357

IN THIS ISSUE

- President's Message
- Extending a Holiday Weekend
- EA & RECE Staffing
- OSBCU Survey
- WorkSite Communicator
- Mobilization Committee
- Upcoming Events

UPCOMING EVENTS

GMM – May 26 – Format TBD

BECOME A MOBILIZER

As we approach closer to contract negotiations, it is vital to have the united front of an engaged membership.

We are looking for individuals ready to mobilize are members to become that united front. If you want to become a Mobilizer, please email: executive@cupe2357.com

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The work you all collectively do is important and appreciated, even though some days it does not feel that way. I want to personally express my deep gratitude for the dedicated work you do day after day. For all you do—and for the kind, thoughtful way you do it—thank you.

Wishing you all an Easter weekend full of sunshine and warm memories.

Cynthia Steeves
President – CUPE 2357

EXTENDING A HOLIDAY WEEKEND

According to our Collective Agreement, only vacation days can be taken to extend a holiday weekend.

Personal and Special Leave days are not eligible to be used in this situation.

EASTER NEWSLETTER 2022

FROM CUPE 2357

EA & RECE STAFFING

The staffing process has started for the EA and ECE classifications.

Please watch your work email or the HR portal for important deadlines.

OSBCU WORKING CONDITIONS SURVEY

The OSBCU Working Conditions Survey is closes on April 14th. To fill the survey out, copy and paste the following link:

<https://survey-sondage.cupe.ca/index.php/441644?lang=en>

WORKSITE COMMUNICATOR

We are updating our worksite communicator list. Worksite Communicators help filter down information to CUPE members at your work location.

Are interested in being a point of contact for the union at your work location?

If so, please email
executive@cupe2357.com

FowlLanguageComics.com ©Brian Gordon